

John Stockmeyer, CLAA

With nearly two decades of experience, Mr. Stockmeyer brings vast expertise in the areas of directing assessment review, real estate appeal preparation, product development and quality control. He has personally represented over half of the Class “A” office space in south Louisiana saving, literally, millions of dollars in real estate taxes for institutional clients and local ownership interests. Additionally, he directs Real Estate Tax Group’s tax sale investment strategies for institutional clients, overseeing portfolio acquisition, accounting and redemption services.

Mr. Stockmeyer’s extensive knowledge of the many facets of real estate taxation has resulted in his being quoted in the publications “Southeast Real Estate News”, “The Times-Picayune”, and “New Orleans CityBusiness” and being interviewed by WWL-TV.
